اصدقاء المغرب Friends of Morocco

FOM seeks to:

- ★ unite Americans with Morocco experience and Moroccans in America;
- ★ keep members and others current on news and events related to Morocco;
- ★ improve awareness of Americans regarding the culture, needs and achievements of Moroccan peoples, Islam, the Arab world and development;
- ★ organize and implement development education and outreach activities;
- ★ support projects of the U.S. Peace Corps and private charitable organizations in Morocco;
- ★ fund and support scholarship on Morocco and Moroccans.

WEB SITE

The site provides basic FOM information including purpose statement, contacts, and membership application. The substantial content includes an exhaustive bibliography on historical Morocco in English, directory of films set in Morocco, directory of Moroccan restaurants throughout the US and retailers of Moroccan goods, Moroccan travel information, a Yellow Pages directory, and access to an extensive Moroccan music library and Moroccan radio stations.

MOROCCAN LANGUAGES

In cooperation with Peace Corps/Morocco, on the Friends of Morocco web site are course books, dictionaries for three of Morocco's languages: Darija or Moroccan dialectal Arabic, and the Amazigh languages of Tashlhiyet and Tamazight.

MOROCCAN CUSINE

The Friends of Morocco web site provides access to over 650 recipes as well as the PC/Morocco 2007 cookbook for volunteers.

NEWS ABOUT MOROCCO

Almost weekly, Friends of Morocco compiles and posts a News Digest of information related to Moroccan-American relations and events in Morocco relevant to the interests of Friends of Morocco. The web site also has links to major newspaper, magazine, radio and television outlets in Morocco and in the United States.
